Utah's Condition

WASHINGTON, October 3 The Mormon question is discussed at some length Arthur L Thomas, the governor of tah, in his annual report to Secretary oble He says that the Mormon people e governed by the priests, and that in ery political and business act the urch is put first, the country after ards

The population of the territory is estimated to be 220,972, an increase of 55 r cent during the past ten years The mbers of the Mormons are recruited immigrants from Great Britain and andinavian countries The report ys that the average number of foreign rn brought to this territory by the ormons have been during the last nine ars about 1800 annually, and that this erage has probably been maintained ring the past year.

He accounts for the hold which Mormonism has upon the people from the t that they are taught to keep clear m influences outside of the church, at their lives are directed by the Lord d that the priesthood is the only thorized medium to reveal and declare e will of the Lord, and obedience to the esthood is practically obedience to the rd.

The governor says that it is now over years since congress condemned polygamy in Utah. The laws of congress ve been ridiculed and treated with tempt, so long as such a course was e, and to evade and resist as far as sible, and during all this time no ange has taken place in the councils or s of Mormonism, and the conflict to-y is -- clearly defined as ever.

The governor recommends the passing the bill reported in the senate by Sen r Edmunds, which authorized the vernor to appoint county officers, and viding for legislative reapportionment states that if the bill becomes a law will place the control of 25 counties in hands of men loyal to the government. He also recommends the passing either the Cullom bill or the Struble l

Harrison's Western Trip.

WASHINGTON, October 3. Preliminary tails of the president's western trip ve been arranged, subject to slight anges. The president will leave ington Monday morning for Cin A short stop will be made esday morning. He will then pro d to Vincennes, Terre Haute and nville; then to Galesburg, Ill, reachthere Wednesday morning, to attend reunion of his brigade, and leave the e evening for Ottumwa, Iowa, where will spend Thursday at the exposi n. That night the president will be en to Topeka, arriving in the morn and remaining until afternoon, en he will take the train to Kansas y, arriving two hours later. He will the guest of his brother, who is a ident of that city, until evening, when will leave for St. Louis to attend the ual festival of the followers of the eiled Prophet," Saturday. That ht he will go to Indianapolis and ad Sunday The next morning he l leave for Washington, reaching here sday morning.

Condition of Trade.

NEW YORK, October 3 R. G Dun & 's Weekly Review of Trade says ver before has there been in any nth so large an increase of the circu lon or so large a payment of the pub debt as in the month just closed mestic trade is improving in all direc ns and at least for the time there is improvement in exports which now w for the past month a gain of seven cent over last year at New York.

Of the magnitude of the domestic de, it appears the actual payments ough clearing houses outside of New rk were in September 16½ per cent ger than last year. This is partly due higher prices, for the general average commodities has risen 1 per cent dur the past week and has been over 6 cent above last year for the past nth But the earnings of railroads as as reported for September, show a n over last year of 7½ per cent, and movements of cattle and cotton are ticularly heavy. In spite of the rt crop, the movement of oats has reased over last year's, while the dease in wheat and corn is partly balced by the increase in flour.

Sales of iron ore at Cleveland thus far s year exceed last year's to date by -third These items respecting the ge trades accord with accounts from rly all cities, which continue highly orable. Boston notes a healthy and couraging trade in New England, iladelphia reports more confidence; icago notes, besides heavy receipts of in, meats and cattle, a larger trade in goods than last year with prompt lections, and the same in boots and es, and a larger trade, but not so mpt collections in clothing St. uis notes unusual activity in all lines, h the dry goods trade exceeding any vious year Cincinnati reports very eral orders for clothing, a good trade tobacco at favorable prices and heavy vement of fruits and produce on ac nt of local scarcity Milwaukee notes ery good trade, the clothiers especially ng unable to fill the unexpected heavy ntry orders. At Savannah trade is y brisk, at St Paul and Minneapolis, aha, Denver and Kansas City it is y good; at Detroit better than last r in some lines, and at Pittsburg large volume and strong in tone for finished n and glass chimneys Many works re are making preparations to turn t tin plates

The iron market is singularly sustained spite of the unprecedented product by unprecedented demand A sharp vance in tin closed with nominally 24 its, though the visible supply is eater than a year ago Lake copper is nly held at 17 cents, notwithstanding ds on other grades, and lead is ong at 5 37½ cents, some foreign ving been bought for importation tton and coffee have been unchanged prices, with oil and hogs lower, but price of wheat has advanced, while s have declined.

The details given show that in all rts of the country and in all import branches of business there is comrative freedom from speculative ex ement or disturbance The general ndness of trade is shown by the rerts of failures, which for the third arter of 1890 were smaller, in number and liabilities less than for the same quarter of 1889, though in Canada rather large in both respects The decrease in number in the United States was small, 2196 this year against 2276 last year, but the liabilities were but $35,452 436 against $39,227,045 last year, showing a decrease in the average for each firm failing. The business failures occurring throughout the country during the past seven days number 197 as compared with 219 last week For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 206.

Great Strike Imminent.

LONDON, October 3 —Directors of the London Gas company to day decided not to accede to the demand made by the National Gas Workers' union that only union men be employed Stokers have threatened to strike. A storm has been brewing between the company and the men for months. The number involved is six times larger than the number engaged in any previous gas house strike The company is making preparations to conduct its business despite any action the men may take Long sheds have been erected within the works for living quarters for non unionists, and a hundred beds have been provided for their use The authorities too have taken energetic measures to suppress any disorder Orders have already been issued that 800 soldiers at Chatham be in readiness to proceed at a moment's notice to protect the gas works and men who refuse to join in the strike Each soldier has been served with twenty rounds of ball cartridges

Stokers declare the reports that they intend to go on a strike to force the company to dispense with non union labor are unfounded Moreover, they declare that they have made no demand upon the directors, but only suggested that it would be to the advantage of each side if only union labor was employed Despite the pacific utterances of the men the troops at Chatham continue under arms

LONDON, October 3 —This morning a deputation of gas men met the directors of the gas company in conference The directors declared that they bore no enmity towards the employes, that they were perfectly satisfied with the employes and that they would always give the preference to old hands without distinction between union and non union men

At a mass meeting of the workmen had later in the evening a resolution was presented expressing thanks to the directors and declaring that the men do not desire to strike

Speaker Reed in Connecticut.

NEW HAVEN, October 3, The Connecticut gubernatorial campaign was formally opened this evening at the theatre by a meeting under the auspices of the Young Men's Republican club A large crowd was attracted to the meeting by the announcement that Speaker Reed would be present Mr. Reed made a speech, in which he said. "There never met in the house of representatives a minority so determined to thwart the will of the people as that led by Mr. Mills, of Texas They resolved that no bills should be p d unless sanctioned by themselves When every barrier was broken down they resolved to resort to obstruction, and every minute of time that could be devised was deliberately turned over to the enemy of souls We are 65,000,000 of people, with energy, brains and enterprise, and ready to reach out in every direction. Such a people will never again be content to be ruled by a machine that does not manage correctly its business."

Railway Building.

CHICAGO, October 3. The Railway Age to morrow will publish a summary of railway construction in the United States in the first nine months of 1890, which shows that 3782 miles of new road have already been built in 39 states and on 22 different lines The states showing the largest amount of new mileage are Georgia, 323 miles, Montana, 212; North Carolina, 236, and Washington, 207.

The Idaho Election.

BOISE CITY, October 3 Republicans claim the election of Shoup for governor and Sweet for congress by 1,800 majority, and the entire state ticket by about the same majority. They claim the legislature will stand 42 republicans, 10 democrats, with 2 members in doubt

Woods Victorious.

DENVER, October 3 The Woods Doyle mill for a purse of $500 came off this afternoon twenty miles from the city and was won by the Colorado champion The fight lasted just fourteen minutes, Woods knocking out his man in the third round His famous right hand upper cut, whose force so many have felt, put the "unknown" to sleep He received its full force in the left temple, staggered to his corner and fell like an ox. When time was called the "unknown" still lay prostrate and the fight was given to Woods The fight was a great disappointment to the 200 sports who paid $4 each to see the mill. The unknown is an old Union Pacific brakeman, recently from Montana. Woods, who won the battle, previously vanquished Keller, Ryan and Bates.

Sealed Matter Safe

WASHINGTON, October 3 Assistant Attorney General Tyner, under direction of the postmaster general, has prepared for publication in the "Postal Bulletin" a circular letter to postmasters, containing instructions for their guidance in the treatment of letter matter under the recent anti-lottery act. It is very explicit in instructions, and allows postmasters to examine all unsealed matter, but forbids tampering with sealed matter.

After the Robbers.

CINCINNATI, October 3 The manager of the Adams Express company has received a letter from the general manager of the Cincinnati, Sandusky and Cleveland road, saying two of the train robbers are in jail at Belfontaine, and the road's detectives are after the third The express company's detectives however have not confirmed this, and there is nothing to show what proof can be found to convict the men arrested.

Iron and Steel Institute.

NEW YORK, October 3 —Members of the British Iron and Steel institute this morning listened to the concluding paper of the session on "Aluminum Steel," by R. A. Hadfield, of Sheffield. The remainder of the day was devoted to visits to various electrical works about the city, to Edison's laboratory, Llewellyn park, N. J., and excursions to various points of interest The delegates leave for Philadelphia to morrow.

A Chicago Scandal.

CHICAGO, October 3 Mrs Emma C. Rathborne, daughter of A B Pullman, began suit to day for divorce from her husband, Richard N. Rathborne, jr. She alleges habitual drunkenness, personal abuse and unfaithfulness The parties to the suit occupy a high social position.

Strike Against a Reduction.

DAYTON, Tenn., October 3 Fitchland & Nelson's miners have struck against a reduction of wages recently ordered. Twelve hundred men are involved.

ILLUSTRIOUS VISITORS.

Comte De Paris and his Party Arrive in New York.

A Party of Army Comrades Meet Him in the Harbor.

Effects of the McKinley Bill Felt all Over the World.

Tin Plate Plants Will be Established in this Country.

Comte de Paris Arrives.

NEW YORK, October 3 Arrived Germanic, from Liverpool, with the Comte de Paris, Duke of Orleans, and Prince de Joinville on board.

All the morning people interested in the arrival of the Comte de Paris and party were on the qui vive for news of the Germanic When signalled, the revenue cutter "Cushman" with a party on board went down the bay to meet her, composed of Collector Erhardt, Gen. Daniel Butterfield, Gen O O. Howard, Gen E D Keyes, Gen Fitz John Porter, Gen H W Slocum, Gen W. B. Franklin, Gen John Newton, Gen J G. Parke, Gen J. R Dillon and Gen O'Brien.

The Germanic was boarded off Staten Island and the comte and party taken on board. Collector Erhardt was presented to the comte, and said. "I am instructed by the president and government to welcome you to these shores and extend you every courtesy." The comte replied. "I thank you very much for the honor, and I am glad to make another visit to America I appreciate the great honor conferred on me by the president "

The comte warmly greeted Butterfield, Porter and other comrades in the army during the late war The party consists of the Comte de Paris, Duc d'Orleans, Duc d'Uzes, Marquis de Lasteyrie, Comte d'Haussonville, Colonel De Parseval, Captain Morhain and Dr Recamier. They will spend a month in this country.

The Kendals also came over on the Germanic.

Effects of the McKinley Bill.

BELMONT, Ont, October 3 The consequence of the passage of the McKinley bill has been to hurry forward shipments of barley of which the elevators and warehouses have been cleared. Fully half the crop, which is a light one, has already been moved A very large export of peas and apples has been made All the eggs have been shipped The prospective effect of the measure will be to stop the export of barley and peas unless the United States prices advance to such an extent that the present prices can be paid

CAPE VINCENT, N. Y., October 3. The seed houses here are working full force night and day and employing as many schooners as possible in order to get their Canadian grown peas and beans into the country before the McKinley bill goes into effect

LONDON, October 3 The McKinley bill is likely to destroy the Birmingham button trade. Many orders have been cancelled and the employes in most of the button works have been put on short time

An English Hint.

LONDON, October 3 The Standard, commenting on the probable effects of the McKinley tariff law, says "We need have no fear that the death, or even the diminution of the English iron trade with America, if we only imitate the avidity of the Americans to take advantage of every improvement in manufacturing "

A New Enterprise.

PITTSBURG, October 3 One result of the passage of the tariff bill with its tinned plate clause will be the establishment of an immense tinned plate factory at an early day in Baltimore. A company of eastern capitalists, principally from Baltimore and New York, have quietly been working on the scheme The capital stock is seven million dollars. The company will do busin s on an enormous scale The concern will have its own tin mines and reducing plant in the west About $500,000 will be put into the Baltimore plant itself. It will cover several acres and will be the largest tin plate concern on the globe.

Foreign capitalists are to erect a tin mill at Duquesne at a cost of $1,500 000, on the property of John A. Wood. About 600 men will receive employment.

An Important Meeting

PITTSBURG, October 3 The twenty-seventh annual convention of the International Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to be held in this city on the 16th inst., will attract the attention of railroad officials and the members of trainmen's organizations to a greater extent than any similar convention held in years Upon the action of this convention depends the future policy of every organization of railroad men in this country. The United Order of Railway Employes, composed of the Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors, the Brotherhood of Firemen and the Switchmen's Mutual Aid association, has invited the engineers to become members of this federation In case the engineers accept this invitation railway employes will have an organization of greater power than ever before existed It will be practically invulnerable. Should the engineers refuse to co operate, the "Federation" will stand as it is at present. Prominent engineers are reticent as to their desires in the matter. The desire of the trainmen to bring about the alliance has had its effect, and the indications now seem to be that a majority of the engineers are in favor of the move. The old differences between the engineers and firemen's organization have been adjusted, and this therefore will not militate against the coalition.

Oklahoma's Capital Contest

GUTHRIE, October 3. The excitement over the capital location, which reached its climax yesterday, continued to-day. After the demonstration against Messrs. Daniels, Perry and Nesbitt last night had subsided, S. R Mitchell, city attorney for Oklahoma City, who chanced to be in town, sent this telegram to one of his friends at home. "Your representatives were mobbed on the street to day Send one hundred armed men." The armed men arrived on the first train this morning and were among the first to secure seats of advantage in the hall of the lower house before that body met in its regular session. Full twice as many friends of the Guthrie measure, equally strongly armed, were also present. Their presence caused intense feeling and it would have taken but the slightest outbreak to have caused serious trouble.

Speaker Daniels was too ill, suffering [illegible] nervous exhaustion, [illegible] by the exciting scene of which he was the center yesterday, to preside over the session. As soon as the house was called to order, Representative Terrell introduced a resolution, calling attention to the presence of armed men in the chamber, declaring their presence to be undesirable, and directing the sergeant-at-arms to eject all spectators, newspaper men excepted. The resolution was voted down—20 to 50. Considering the probability of a repetition of yesterday's riotous scenes, it was deemed advisable to postpone until to-morrow further action on the capital question.

A reporter called to see Speaker Daniels to-day. He was utterly prostrated and consented to an interview against his physician's advice. "I have stood by Oklahoma City as long as I think I can I signed that bill under a misapprehension, and I have so informed the governor." The speaker was very weak, but he summoned up strength sufficient to write a communication to the house stating the facts in his interview. He also framed a resolution which will be introduced to morrow, providing for the recall of the bill from the senate

When this resolution is presented a lively time is expected The Oklahoma City force is still here and its motto is "Fair play for Oklahoma City." The Guthrie force is determined that its city shall also have fair play, and unless both agree as to what constitutes fair play trouble will doubtless ensue.

Silver Purchases

WASHINGTON, October 3 The amount of silver offered to the treasury department to day amounted to 957,000 ounces The amount purchased was 510,000, as follows. 40,000 ounces at $1 1345, 100,000 ounces at $1 137, 65,000 ounces at $1 1375, 50 000 ounces at $1 1380, 20,000 ounces at $1 1383, 180,000 ounces at $1 1384, 55,000 ounces at $1 386.

Western Surveys.

WASHINGTON, October 3 The secretary of the interior to day approved the apportionment of money appropriated for surveys in amount allotted to each state and territory Arizona $5,000, California $10 000, Colorado $15,000, North Dakota $30,000, South Dakota $40,000.

Their Next Capsid.

DENVER, October 3 Messrs Stanton & Cummings, lessees of the Glenarm hotel, were served to night with an attachment for $3000, issued at the request of the Boston owners of the building, for back rent The clerk of the hotel has gone east and his books are being overhauled by experts.

THE TEAM RETURNING.

The Colorado Springs Hose Team to be Properly Received

It was very hard to get any intelligence from the Boulder hose races yesterday and the citizens interested in such sports were on the qui vive all day. The first intelligence received was that the home company had tied with two others for second place in the straightaway, and the last that they had suddenly decided to abandon the field and return home Speculation was rife as to the cause, but it was not possible to learn accurately, as the Colorado Springs people had all left Boulder.

Several persons who were at the tournament arrived at home last night on a late train and from them were gleaned some of the facts in the case, among them being Mr. E E Martin, who acted as a judge It was stated that the first race run yesterday morning was the straightaway. This was won by the Loveland team in 23 2-5 seconds, Colorado Springs, Boulder and Greeley tied at 23 3 5 seconds, and the tie still stands In the afternoon the dry test came on and the Boulder team was the first to run through A Colorado Springs man immediately discovered that the hose laid the next to the last section was twenty feet short. The home men were also convinced that professional runners had been run on the team The time made by the Boulders was 29 1 5, which is too fast for any scrub amateur team to make, not taking into account the twenty feet of short hose The Colorado Springs people were not there for that kind of "sport," and packed up their effects and left within twenty minutes Other teams were "kicking" and preparing to leave and some had left before. They were offered inducements to remain and told that they could run with the [illegible] length of hose, etc. But as this was only one sample of the injustices they had endured they would listen to nothing of the kind. The team was taken to Denver where it remained last night and will reach the city this morning.

The accommodations offered were very poor in every respect, and the boys report a general spirit of inhospitality. In the wet test they were made to run with a cart weighing 300 pounds more than they had been used to They offered the use of the Jackson cart for all the teams, but this was denied, although that cart has run in the very best tournaments in the state. The Boulder people accused the Colorado Springs judge of unfairness, and claimed that he gave the straightaway to the Lovelands, etc. There was what was called a "board of control," composed of Boulder citizens, who had absolute power over the decisions of the judges, and to whom appeals could be made, rendering the judges the merest ciphers In fact, the Colorado Springs people were thoroughly disgusted.

A meeting of the Colorado Springs fire department was held last night in the rooms of the Hook and Ladder company, to make some arrangements for receiving the team to day. First Assistant Johnson presided. A committee of one from each company upon reception and arrangements was appointed as follows F. A. Mangold of the Jacksons, R J. Morgan of the Hooks; James Barnes of the College; Frank Rudy of the Ferrans, T. F. Clifford of the France, J. G Wells of the Crowells The committee was instructed to officially meet the team at the depot this morning with a band and it was voted that the members of the department should meet at city hall at 10 o'clock this morning and proceed to the depot carrying new brooms

The committee met later and arranged the [illegible] for the day. The party will be met with carriages and the band upon their arrival at 11 o'clock and escorted to the city hall, where Mayor Sull[illegible] will be asked to deliver an address of welcome and perhaps other speeches will follow. In the evening there will be a [illegible] held in [illegible] hall, with a light [illegible] [illegible]

The instructions of the postmaster general to postmasters that they must not open sealed letters to see if they [illegible] in lottery matter is quite right. Whatever may be the harm of the lottery, it is [illegible] than the danger of a government [illegible] of letters. Such an act of [illegible] would be intolerable to the American people.

Bids were opened on Wednesday for the construction of three large battle ships and a swift cruiser for our new navy. The United States has a navy at [illegible] to say. It is growing [illegible] but not too rapidly, as the [illegible] that future operations are to be [illegible] rather than attack. The United States is not seeking a quarrel with any one but it will be very unpleasant for any nation who attacks her.

We are pleased to congratulate our [illegible] contemporary on the excellence of its telegraph service. It was no small thing to receive the first information in this city of the result of the wet test in Ba[illegible], just after going to press. The announcement on Thursday evening of the arrival of the Comte de Paris in New York, which did not really take place until Friday morning, was a still greater [illegible]. It must have been one of those [illegible] when the mail beats the telegraph.

The news that a toll gate has been placed on the road leading from the Cheyenne toll road to Mrs. Jackson's grave was made public yesterday. There is only one opinion about it. It is a [illegible] that a commercial use is made of the sentiment which led Mrs. Jackson to select this spot for her [illegible] place. It was furthest from her thoughts and wishes that her grave should be made a place of [illegible]. She expected that this [illegible] would always be private, visited only by those who cared for her memory. [illegible] be confidently expected that Mrs. Jackson's friends will see that her wishes are carried out.

The following communication has been received from Mr. H. W. Hallett, [illegible] member of the firm of Hallett & Baker of this city, and also chairman of the board of commissioners of Garfield county. Mr. Hallett is widely known and respected in the western part of the state, and his views are entitled to respect:

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., October 2.
To the Editor of the Gazette:

[illegible] for a written statement from [illegible] republican nominee for state [illegible] that in the event of his election all [illegible] accruing from the public funds should be covered into the state treasury is a proper [illegible] it is presumed, will be complied with, but no such statement will add strength with [illegible] friends throughout the state, and [illegible] in western Colorado, where he is best [illegible] to the pledge already publicly given by [illegible]. While an earnest republican, Mr. Fowler is not a politician. His thorough financial [illegible], together with the honesty and integrity which are marked characteristics of the [illegible], fit him for the duties of the important office to which he is nominated. No [illegible] ring will unduly influence John H. F[illegible]. In the western part of the state he will [illegible] ahead of his ticket, receiving the hearty support of all republicans, including a large [illegible] who are disgusted with the past administration of state affairs, as well as many [illegible]. H. W. HALLETT.

While vigorous congressional action has taken from the Mormon church much of its power, it is still active and dangerous. It cannot be safely left without careful watching, even for a short period. In Utah the same principles of bitter hostility to the United States and its republicanism are none the less bitter [illegible] more carefully concealed. It is [illegible] than suspected that the inauguration ceremonies of the Mormon president include his coronation as king. The city of Salt Lake has scarcely begun to re[illegible] from the paralysis of the city [illegible] which characterized the Mormon rule. The spectacle of a city of 41,000 people without schools or sewers and very few of the modern comforts of civilization is a striking illustration of the unfitness of Mormons to [illegible] of an American [illegible]. In the neighboring states and [illegible] the Mormon power is ever [illegible]. Like slaves the ignorant [illegible] obey orders from headquarters [illegible] casting republican [illegible] ballots, the Mormons [illegible] the first and [illegible]. According to the report of [illegible] spirit which has [illegible] ugly and defiant. The laws of repression have checked the outward [illegible] somewhat, and their [illegible] speaks in favor of further restriction, but there is still the same spirit of tyranny in the leaders, and of blind ignorant bigotry and devotion in the followers which have [illegible] so much misery and crime. With singular clearsightedness the leaders continue their bitter opposition to education and to contact with outsiders and their influences. We may advance the opinion that in them lies the greatest chance of the final and complete overthrow of this system of blasphemy and greed. Schools and immigration will bring a slow but sure remedy and they may be greatly helped by governmental interference, but at present Utah is very far from being fit to become a state.

THE SUNDAY GAZETTE

Among the many interesting special articles to be found in the Sunday edition of the GAZETTE, the following may be mentioned:

Frederick Dolman reports an interview had with Wm. O'Brien, the Irish nationalist, regarding the visit of a party of orators to this country to appeal for support in their battle against "iniquitous landlordism." It is evident that the interview occurred before the recent arrests, which were entirely unexpected.

A French physician makes some startling statements regarding the decay in the population of France, where the Malthusian doctrine is in full practice.

MONUMENT, October 3, 1890
To the Editor of the Gazette:

In the last issue of the Monument Recorder appears an article entitled "The Ranchmen Ignored," which does a great injustice to the Divide ranchmen, as well as to the present management of the [illegible] barbecue. In the first place it states, "that not one single ranchman has been appointed on the different committees, and it is not to be wondered at that they feel slighted." Let me say with pride of our ranchmen, that they do not feel thus slighted, and after having talked with several of those suggested by this correspondent, as practical farmers, from whom a selection could have been made, I [illegible] that not one of them wished, or would have accepted a position on the executive committee; because their good sense tells them that such committee should be composed of persons living close together, that they may meet daily, or oftener if necessary, and talk over arrangements to be made, which often require more attention than a committee composed of persons living at a distance from each other could make. Our honorable chairman of the association, Mr. O. P. Jackson, who is perhaps the largest potato grower on the Divide, well knew when he was authorized to appoint an executive committee of five, who would take full charge of the bake and barbecue, and have authority to appoint such other committees as might be necessary, that he must appoint such men as he knew had the inclination and would take the time to work the enterprise up to a grand success in the interest of the whole Divide. Up to the time when the article referred to was read, I venture to say that no one but the writer of said article had dreamed of the absurd idea that it is only Monument's and not the Divide's enterprise. Mr. Jackson also knew that at this season his neighbor ranchmen are too busy to give time to anything else but looking after their crops.

There is no discordant feeling between the citizens of Monument and the ranchmen of the Divide, and any attempt on the part of correspondents to create such a feeling should meet with prompt rebuke. I repeat that the Divide ranchmen do not feel ignored or slighted in this enterprise and it is a slander upon their fair name to have them thus misrepresented before the public. They are offering every encouragement to the committee, and the whole affair, with their assistance, promises to be a grand success.

Come one, come all, and we will show you what the Divide can do in the way of raising potatoes and entertaining her friends. A DIVIDE CITIZEN.

Presidential Appointments.

WASHINGTON, October 3. The president has appointed Austin J. Braddock, of Rockville, Md., Henry J. Atton, of Hiawatha, Kan., John S. Mayhugh, of Elko, Nev., and Miss Helen P. Clark, of Montana, special agents to make allotments of lands in severalty to Indians under the provisions of the act of congress approved February 8, 1887.

The president has appointed J. B. Turner, of Indiana, usher at the White house, vice E. W. White, of Indiana, resigned.

The Pugilists in Court.

LONDON, October 3. Hearing in the case of Slavin and McAuliffe, charged with assaulting each other and committing a breach of the peace, took place to-day in Lambeth police court. Counsel for the crown said if the contest between them was declared unlawful the persons who arranged and abetted the fight would be prosecuted. After hearing the evidence the court reserved its decision for one week.

The Irish Trials.

DUBLIN, October 8. Hearing in the case against Dillon, O'Brien and the other nationalists on the charge of conspiracy was continued at Tipperary. Much excitement was occasioned in the court room by the evidence of one of the witnesses, who testified that he followed several of the defendants into the vestry of the Catholic church and tried to overhear what was said there by them. The testimony aroused the indignation of counsel for the defendants, and he demanded to know if the days had returned when the sanctity of the confessional could be invaded.

When the court reopened the witness was cross examined by Mr. Harrington, who called the witness a "shadow." The magistrate called upon Mr. Harrington to withdraw the expression. Mr. Harrington refused to do so and was ordered to [illegible] the case. An uproar ensued, Messrs. [illegible] and Dillon commenting freely upon the manner in which the case was conducted. Finally another half hour adjournment was ordered.

During the adjournment, Mr. Harrington's clients decided to defend themselves. When the proceedings were resumed, Mr. Dillon had just begun to address the bench, when a cheer was raised for Mr Harrington. This so exasperated the magistrate that he ordered the court cleared and the proceedings were adjourned abruptly amid the greatest confusion. A large body of police was massed outside the court, but there was no rioting.

Base Ball Matters.

LOUISVILLE, October 8. Brooklyn opened negotiations to day for the world's championship series with Louisville.

CINCINNATI, October 8. There is very much of a gathering together of base ball men, managers and correspondents here to-night. President Stern of the Cincinnati club arrived to night and had a conference with Mr. F. H. Brunnell, secretary of the Brotherhood league. E. B. Tallbot, secretary and treasurer of the New Yorks and Mr. John Ward, of the Brooklyn club, are here and were present at this evening's conference. Mr. Al Johnson, of the Cleveland club, will be here in the morning. Boston and New York papers have special correspondents on the ground. The final business of the transfer of the Cincinnati club will be transacted at the meeting to be held in the Burnett house at 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

Mr. Brunnell was to night seen by a representative of the Associated Press and asked if the terms of sale were $48,000 as reported, of which $80,000 was down. He answered no; but he added: "That figure is so near the truth, so little out of the way that a correction is not worth while. Furthermore, the price paid will be virtually cash, inasmuch as the paper given will be negotiable and equivalent to cash."

Secretary Brunnell says the Brotherhood loss would be between $50,000 and $80,000 this year, while those of the league would be several times that sum. Since interviewing Secretary Brunnell, the Associated Press representative has ascertained that the price to be paid is $85,000, of which $80,000 will be cash down. The players remain to be signed by the Cincinnati club, and they will sign in the morning.

MANITOU SPRINGS.

Mr. John Farnell is absent for a month's sojourn with friends in the east.

Mr. J. W. Shoules and wife, of Louisville, Ky., are visiting friends in Manitou.

Mr. Geo. W. Thomas, of Mankato, Minn., started from the Cliff yesterday morning for the summit of Pike's Peak.

Judge A. L Williams, of Topeka, Kas., has returned from his fishing trip. The judge reports plenty of fish and lots of sport. He intends going again in a few weeks.

Col. Thomas Harbine, of Fairbury, Neb., is still at the Sunny Side. The colonel knew Henry Clay and Daniel Webster personally and tells many a pleasing anecdote of their sayings and doings in the good old times before the "wah." The colonel has a most remarkable memory that makes middle-aged people feel like children when he talks of historical events in which he took a part as a grown man long before they were born, and although he has evidently passed man's allotted time on earth three score years and ten he still retains his health and is a vigorous and genial companion.

Central Office for Austin Bluff Property.

The finest Suburban Residence Location combining view of mountain and plain in the state. Beautiful parks, overgrown with large pine trees unequalled as a health location. Pure air, pure water, and plenty of it, both for domestic and irrigating purposes. No smoke! No dust! The track of the Electric Car Line is already laid from one of the parks in the center of this property to the city limits. Electric Cars are now running. Bringing this property within fifteen minutes' ride from the postoffice. Several fine residences will be erected on this property at an early date. Special Inducements offered for the next 60 days to parties buying lots with the intention of building at once. Why locate in the smoke and dust of our city when such an opportunity is offered? Each lot contains from one to four acres. Specially adapted for fine residences. This location speaks for itself. All that we ask is an inspection of the property before purchasing.
